

K-LOVE is the ONLY FM station that I listen to. As I go around town I see many other cars with their 88.9FM bumper stickers so I realize I am only one of many that appreciate this station and would miss it sorely if something were to happen to it. Their uplifting programming is encouraging and very significant to me.